

IN SENATE
OF
THE UNITED STATES,

FEBRUARY 12, 1848.

Mr. Wilson submitted the following motion for consideration.

Resolved, That the committee on Public Lands be instructed to inquire into the expediency of extending the time allowed, by the "Act to provide for designating, surveying, and granting, the Military Bounty Lands," approved May 6, 1812, to noncommissioned officers and soldiers of the United States, or their representatives, to present their claims to the Secretary at War, for military bounty lands.
